

Foundation activities

The foundation, in order to reach its objectives may develop the following activities:

- a. Development of planning and programming studies in order to establish an energy action plan on a provincial level.
- b. Provide information to the public about energy in general and training on specific programs dealing with energy optimisation and energy use.
- c. Promote activities related to certification and energy diagnose in buildings and industries.
- d. Foster the participation of local agents in actions aimed at the rational use of energy.
- e. Foster the creation of local agencies on energy.
- f. Foster energy savings through the efficient use of resources and the use of clean technologies.
- g. Foster the implementation of renewable energy facilities trough research and knowledge and experience transfer.
- h. Technological and economic assessment in design and development of studies and investments in facilities and energy infrastructure.
- i. Development of as many complementary activities as needed from the abovementioned in order to improve its efficiency.